

QUICK GUIDE TO ED EDELMAN NORTH LOOP TRAIL

Quick Guide
courtesy of County of Los Angeles

DESCRIPTION: The Ed Edelman North Loop Trail is located within the Summit Valley Edmund D. Edelman Park. It begins with a climb up along the ridge of a foothill that provides sweeping views of the surrounding area before descending down into a shaded canyon and returning to the staging area. There are also several connector trails and small loop trails that branch off of this trail.

DIRECTIONS: From the PCH take Topanga Canyon Boulevard and continue for 8.6 miles. The staging area and trailhead will be on the left. From the 101 take Topanga Canyon Boulevard exit. Head south for 4.2 miles and the staging area and trailhead will be on the right.

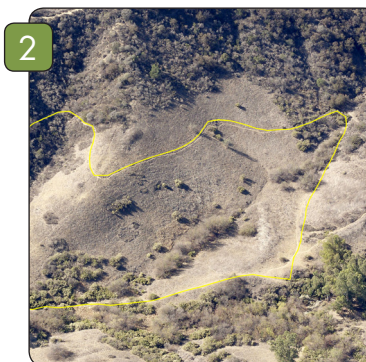

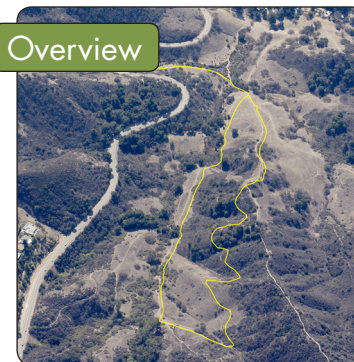

SANTA MONICA MOUNTAINS NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

Length: 1.36 miles
Elevation Gain: 187 feet

Overview

Access & Features

Trailhead

Trail Type

Natural Trail

Trail Road (unpaved)

Public Parkland and
Other Protected Open
Space

